The township committee received a petition from residents of Shad Roe Lane. The residents would like to have the road repaired. Mayor Elwell met with the County Road Supervisor to see if they could pave Shad Roe Lane since it is a very small road. Mayor Elwell also asked about Yerkee's and Nelson Avenue. The County Road Supervisor believes they can do it but will let us know.

Police Report, Building Inspectors report, CO report, and Tax Collector to be read by clerk

Committee Reports

Fire Company - 7 Ambulance calls and 10 Fire calls

Emergency Management.- Deputy Mayor McAllister reported we are good with COVID 19 PPE.

Community Development- Mayor Elwell informed us that Verizon has added FIOS service throughout the township. He also shared we will have our Pride in Elsinboro Awards and our Decorating contest in December.

Administration – Mayor Elwell applied and received a grant for $3000.00 to use for Personal Protective Equipment for fire Company.

Township Roads- Committeeman Hogate thinks using the County Road Department would be good for the small roads.

Insurance- Committeeman Hogate has attended the meetings and he met with George Reese from the Young Agency to make sure everything was up to date for the Township insurance.
