Committee Reports

Fire Company – Sherry Biddle reported the fire company is having a raffle on November 15, 2020, the prize is a freezer full of meat.

Emergency Management.- Deputy Mayor McAllister had nothing at this time.

Community Development- Mayor Elwell directed the clerk to call Mr. Jones about a property on Evergreen Avenue that needs to have caution tape around the perimeter and maybe some no trespassing signs.

Mayor Elwell told us Mr. Seddon was very happy that we recognized his mothers 100th birthday.

Elsinboro Township is also a voter drop box location so our residents can bring their ballots to the municipal building and put their ballots in the box.

Township Roads-Committeeman Hogate said the roads are mowed and it looks better than it has in a long time.

Insurance- Committeeman Hogate attended all JIF meetings for September and will make sure the Dodge Durango is put on the Insurance.

Administration-Mayor Elwell commended the township employees for keeping the budget down we have only spent 62% and $\frac{3}{4}$ through the year.
