Police Report, Building inspectors report, CO report and Tax Collectors report to be kept on file

Township Solicitor- Solicitor Arbittier shared the state has passed recreational cannabis, however it cannot be grown, sold or distributed. No legal venue exists. An ordinance should be done as soon as possible if the town does not want Marijuana allowed.

Committee Reports

Emergency Management.- Deputy Mayor McAllister informed everyone the office is almost finished with renovations.

Township Roads- Committeeman Hogate told us a small portion of road by windy corner needed to be fixed. He is taking the truck to be cleaned up from the snow plowing.

Insurance Committeeman Hogate shared that JIF wants us to be aware of Hackers.

Open to Public Comment

Mr. Cocchi asked the committee to have the fence fixed on the beach. He said if we put the posts in, he would put the fence up. Mr. Cocchi also wanted to make sure signs were put back up on Mrs. Yerke's property for no parking. Mayor Elwell told him the digital sign will also be put up on Mrs. Yerkee's Property for no parking. Mr. Cocchi then asked about the flooding issue on Salem - Ft. Elfsborg road. Mayor Elwell said Salem County received 1 million in federal funds for the project about 7 years ago. The proposed pump station is not feasible so they are going to raise the road. The project is still in the planning stage.
